THE MESSAGE OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN, which we present in this paper, fulfills the just expectations of the people in regard to the intentions of the government. It shows that the administration is determined to use the whole power of the government to suppress the armed rebellion, which is endeavoring to break up the Union, and that the war is to be a war of no compromise with traitors, and no intention of compromising with traitors.

Congress, we think, will be able to do nothing more than to support the rebellion, which is endeavoring to break

Call for Four Hundred Thousand Men and Four Hundred Millions of Dollars!

and House of Representatives

Having been convened on an extraordinary occasion, as authorized by the Constitution, your attention is not called to any ordinary subject of

THE BEGINNING OF THE REBELLION

At the beginning of the present Presidential term, four months ago, the intentions of the Federal Government were found to be generally supported within the several States of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Florida, excepting only those of the Post Office Department within those States. All the forts, arsenals, lock yards, custom houses, and the like, including the mounds and stationary property in and about them, had been seized and were held in open hostility to this government, excepting only Fort Sumter, Taylor and Jefferson, and near the Florida coast, and Fort Sumter, in Charleston harbor,

South Carolina. The forts thus seized had been put in improved condition, and new ones had been built, and armed forces had been organized and were held in open hostility to this government, excepting only Fort Sumter, Taylor and Jefferson, and near the Florida

coast, and Fort Sumter, in Charleston harbor,

To state the question more directly, are all the laws but one to be executed and the Government itself to go to pieces, or is it violated? Even in such a case would not the law be broken, if the Government should throw when it was believed that disregarding the single law would tend to preserve it?

It was not believed that any law was

Secession Dead and Buried in all Europe—Privateers not allowed to Enter any Port—A Secession Flag Burned in London—the Three Divisions of the Army to March—Fourth Rebel Battery at Mathias Point—Fourth Maine Regiment under Marching Orders

WASHINGTON, Md.

European newspapers, it is understood, show an improved disposition in England. France, the Monitor article which appeared to go so much to the credit of the Government, has been explained away to the effect that the Government of Secretary Seward. From all the nations of Europe and Spain and Italy, most hearty and sincere expressions of sympathy for the United States in the present contest are furnished to the Government. No privateers will be allowed to enter any foreign port. Secession is dead and buried in Europe.

It is certain that after the discharge of the three months' troops there will still be an available force of 180,000 men, which added to the regular army, will constitute a total force of 250,000. There are no more to be feared for Congress to determine whether the army shall be increased at this time by a still larger volunteer force.

It is probable that the total amount required for the army added to the appropriation for the year ending June 30th, will be about $185,000,000. The cost of the war for the year is large, but the exact figures have not yet been established.

CONGRESS, Md.

The Democrat of this morning says secession flag raised yesterday was torn down and burned by the citizens of a neighborhood.

The Union men here celebrate the fourth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg. A large number of Union men gathered at the city hall to celebrate the day.

The Augustan Constitution in the Confederate Congress has been defeated in Georgia.

Governor Pettus of Mississippi has issued a proclamation calling on the State officers to collect all the arms, rifles and shot guns, and new, in or out of repair, and send them to Jackson. All citizens are to be armed themselves with double barreled shot guns.

NEW YORK, 6th.

A Washington dispatch says the Tribune says the army will be increased at this time by a still larger volunteer force.
